

Relevant Articles of the Decree-Law no. 678

ARTICLE 30 – The following sub-paragraph has been inserted to Article 11 § 1 of the Public Procurement Law no. 4734 of 4 January 2002, and the following paragraph has been added to the same Article:

“g) Natural and legal persons who have been identified by the National Intelligence Organization or the Security General Directorate as having affiliation or connection with terrorist organizations.”

“The procedures and principles regarding the notifications to be made within the scope of subparagraph (g) of Article 11 § 1 shall be determined by the Council of Ministers. Tenderers who have been established to fall under the scope of the certain paragraph shall be excluded from the tender; however, provisions of Article 11 § 4 shall not apply to their tender securities.”

ARTICLE 35 – Article 63 § 1 of the Law no. 6356 (dated 18 October 2012) on Trade Unions and Collective Labour Agreements has been amended as the following:

“(1) A lawful strike or lock-out that has been called or commenced may be suspended by the Council of Ministers for 60 days with a decree if it is prejudicial to public health, national security, urban public transportation services of the metropolitan municipalities, or economic or financial stability in banking services. The suspension shall come into force on the date of publication of the decree.”
